DOM PEDRO AT THE CAPITOL-HIS MAYE TY'S OPINION OF THAT BIG HOUSE. - [Washington correspondence of the New York Herald.]—After contemplating the Capitol for awkile he turned to the Herald correspondent and said: "It is magnificent. It is the finest building I ever saw. There is nothing in Kurope equal to it." And then, after a moment's

The groups of statuary, which disagure the splendid pile, caught his Majesty's eye, and he said: "Oh, they are very poor. It must be said that the sculpture is mediocre. Let us not speak of them, but the mass is that the big picture did not give him a very high notion of our art taste. Looking at the bigh notion of our art taste. Looking at the bas reliefs round the retunda, the Emperor was driven to inquire where the Americans had gone in search of such bad artists, and was not a little shocked to find that the worst work in the place had been done by adventurous pretenders from sunny Italy. adventurous pretenders from sunny Italy. The only works of real artistic worth were the splendid views of the Yellowstone Vallev and Colorado, painted by Thomas Moran-works that are well deserving of the honorable position that has been assigned to them, and are in keeping with the grandeur of the edifice they adorn.

These observations were made on the outside of the building, for en the arrival of the imperial party the doors were found to be locked, but were opened after a short de-lay through the courtesy of the officers. The rotunda won from his Majesty expressions of admiration, but it is to be feared that the big picture did not give him a very high notion of our art taste. Looking at the my 10-W&F3t.

CONDITION OF THE POPE'S HEALTH-HE CONFINES HIMSELP TO ONE LANGUAGE.-[Special to the Herald.]-Rome, May 7 .-In confirmation of what I wrote about the Pope's declining physical powers I have to report that his Holiness now refuses to speak in any other language than the Italian. Thus on Sunday last, to the Toulouse pilgrims, and again yesterday, in addressing some 1,500 pilgrims, chiefly French, he replied in Italian, to the general disappointment of the devotees.

His Hofiness is very feeble in body. He has to be supported by two prelates of the Church, and on the occasion of Vatican receptions alleges his bodily weakness as an excuse for not going round to bless the trinkets and other matters which are presented to him. His voice, is, however, of undiminished power.

THAT TRULY VALUABLE FARM KNOWN AS "HUNSLETT HALL." ON THE RICHMOND AND HENRICO TURNPIKE AND CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO RAILROAD, THREE AND A HALF MILES FROM THE CITY OF BICHMOND, FOR SALE AT PUBLIC AUCTION. At the request of the owners, Messrs. Storrs & Co., we will offer for sale, on the premises, at public auction, on THURSDAY the 18th day of May, 1876, at 4 o'clock P. M., that TRULY VALUABLE FARM located as above described, containing ONE HUNDRED AND NINETY-SIX ACRES OF LAND, ten acres of which is meadow land. The whole farm has been heavily manured, and is in a high state of cultivation; young orchard of 700 or 800 trees of choice fruit; well of excellent water in the yard; also a fine spring near the house. Improvements: Dwelling with seven rooms, kitchen, barn, stable, and all necessary out-houses. This farm is susceptible of division, giving to the place with the residence one hundred and two acres, and to the other aniety-four acres, with a small house occupied by the manager. The nearness of this place to the city, with a splendid pike and railroad communication, with a turn-out on the place (accommodation trains pass twice a day) should engage the attention of those seeking a pleasant home, and at the same time a good investment. Terms: Cash sufficient to pay expenses of sale; residue on very accommodating terms, and made known at sale.
